Architecturally Significant Home

Positioned on the peak of Bellevue Hill, this architecturally significant home soaks up sweeping views of the coastline and beyond to Point Plomer courtesy of its northerly aspect.

You will be in awe from the moment you step through the front gates. Tall hedged gardens offer privacy and welcome you into a sanctuary with striking street appeal and a hidden travertine wrapped swimming pool with cabana.

With natural palette and architecturally inspired clean lines, every feature incorporated into this home is of the highest standard.

The floor plan incorporates open plan living and an abundance of entertaining zones including the formal dining hosting a grand 10 ft dining table and in-built liquor cabinet perfe...
