A Selection of Three Villas Inspired By Villiers-Couture

A showpiece of master craftsmanship inspired by Villiers-Couture a small commune on the southwestern coast of France. If you visited this French village, expect to stay in a hedged garden stone villa or a cottage style home enriched with cobblestone pathways and historical traces back to the first production of Cognac brandy.

Raked ceilings are an iconic feature of Villiers-Couture and have been tastefully incorporated. Clerestory and seamless feature windows welcome light and the sea air of Rainbow Beach. Picture yourself relaxing on your sun lounge, soaking up the sophisticated atmosphere.

Custom vanities with stone benchtops and double showerheads, pendant lighting, quality stainless steel fixtures and appliances are integrated within a single-level layout where classic French design effortlessly fuses with modern flourishes and boasts serene in/outdoor ...
