Own The Building & The Land! Last One Left

A showpiece of master craftsmanship inspired by Villiers-Couture a commune on the southwestern coast of France. If you visited this French village, expect to stay in a hedged garden stone villa or a cottage style home enriched with cobblestone pathways and historical traces back to the first production of Cognac brandy.

Raked ceilings are tastefully incorporated, Clerestory and seamless feature windows welcome light and the sea air of Rainbow Beach. Picture yourself relaxing on your sun lounge, soaking up the sophisticated atmosphere.

Expert and hand selected, an enriched stone and texture pallet complements the design inspiration. Oak cabinetry, Ice Snow Caesarstone, Whisper White walls, Pavilion carpet, boaden...
